falling to state the belief that is in us, because we are afraid of making somebody mad? When Madison sent his ringing message to the congress of the United States in 1812 there was not any fear of offending Great Britain then. When Monroe sent his message to congress in 1823 there were not any fears of offending the combined nations of the world. And after the civil war, when the president of the United States sent a message to France that she must get out of Mexico, there was not any fear of offending France. Lincoln was not afraid to send a message to the congress of the United States when Sumner was fired on. It led to a war where brother was arrayed against brother and father against son, and our country was drenched in blood. And yet if we had been prepared when that war broke out, instead of covering a period of four years, almost bankrupting our country and compelling us to pay a pension roll now of $160,000,000 a year, it would have ended in sixty or ninety days.

No Friends in Europe.
There is not a country in Europe that feels kindly to us today and we know it. There is no use for us to try to disguise it. So do not let any of us fool ourselves with the idea that any of the powers of Europe feel any too kindly to waste an aggressive war on us after the present war is over.

"So much for the European side of this. They say, 'Who wants to fight?' I do not know who wants to fight, but we want to be in such a position that we don't care who wants to fight.

Should Face Situation.
"Now let us look over on the other side. They say we ought not to talk about these things. Why not? There is too much a disposition now-days to conceal the truth from the people. With that feeling in my heart, and that thought in my mind, I call your attention to the great On the Pacific coast, where I live we look across the water and see a powerful, warlike people that in fifty years have developed into not only the most warlike nation on the face of the earth, but the most industrious people on the face of the earth, and I glory in the magnificent progress they made. I have not in my heart anything but the kindest of feeling toward them.

Oriental Not Friendly.
"But there are racial differences. Not hatred, God knows we don't hate them—anybody whose color is different from ours, but there are racial differences and distinctions which will always prevent these great powers from combining socially, and presenting to the world a monster race of people. She does not like us; there is no question about that. A few years ago, under a distinguished president of the United States, we had the humiliating spectacle of the president of the United States begging California to admit the Japanese children to the schools of the Pacific coast, notwithstanding the fact that boys eighteen or twenty years of age were asked to be admitted into the schools with little girls, children eight, or ten or twelve years of age. The California people did not submit to it. They would rather be driven into the sea, my friends, than submit to it.

President Changes Mind.
"A year ago the president was opposed to any and all preparedness. Now they are blaming him for changing his mind. My friends, there is nobody but a fool who never changes his mind. I beseech you not to criticize those who are trying to do something, but to help them solve a difficult problem, because it is a difficult one.

"This continental plan of Mr. Garrison does not meet with my approval, but I did not say that I am going around and telling people that it ought not to be enacted. I believe the solution for this is universal military training, but I know that the people have not been educated up to it yet. Until it is enacted there will be no proper reserve to draw upon in case of necessity.

"It may be that this continental army plan which is endorsed by some of the most distinguished soldiers in the army, can be hammered into shape. It can be given a trial and if it does not work the American people will know it and then they will be more nearly prepared to come to military training."

Warning by Pichan.
Senator Pichan of California declared he had been reliably informed that the presence of Japanese vessels in Mexican Pacific waters was not to aid a stranded Japanese warship, as stated, but for the purpose of making a demonstration in anticipation of an American protest against Japan's demands on China.

"Japan is aggressive," Senator Pichan said. "She seeks a lodgment on the Mexican coast."

"It is rumored today that her troops are in that country. She has had a warship in the waters down there, presumably crippled, and has sent over a large number of her ships in order to take the crippled vessel, so-called, off the shoals. But I have it on the best of authority that the vessel was not crippled at all and at the very time Japan was making the demands under the twelve articles against China and feared American protest—which was made. And that fleet was over here, I verily believe, to make a demonstration; but happily for us (and America is singularly fortunate in all its affairs) other nations like England and France joined in the protest against the demands made by Japan upon China, and because our protest was so fortified that fleet withdrew from our coast."

Helpless Before Japan.
"We were not prepared even to meet that fragment of the Japanese fleet which could have put our cities under tribute and sailed away."

Summary of War News of Yesterday

The cessation, by reason of heavy casualties, of the Russian attacks against the Austro-Hungarians near the Bessarabian frontier; the capture by the Russians from the Turks of the town of Sultaniabad, Persia, and the taking from the Germans by the British of additional towns in the Kamerun district of Africa, are the principal features of the fighting, as contained in the latest official communications. There also have been small engagements in Russia, around Pskov and in the region of Saratovsk; artillery and mining operations along the front in France and Belgium, and a continuation of the artillery duels and infantry attacks in the Austro-Italian theater. In none of these, however, has any great results been attained.

Although it has been reported that the Austro-Hungarians and Montenegrins are again at grips, no details have yet come through as to the progress of the fighting. It is presumed, however, that the Austrians will continue to press the Montenegrins toward the Albanian frontier and try to capture Montenegro's principal seaport, Antivari. A Rome dispatch says that Albanian troops under Essad Pasha, provisional president of Albania, have arrived at Scutari to join the Montenegrin troops who are retreating on that Albanian city.

The entente powers, acting on the request of the United States, will release the consular representatives of the Teutonic powers and their allies, arrested recently at Saloniki.

To hasten the manufacture of munitions, the British government will place semi-skilled, unskilled and women laborers under the control of the government. Premier Asquith has announced that the trades unions which had previously objected to this plan, were now supporters of it.

In order to prevent the central powers from importing wheat from Rumania, an Anglo-French corporation has been formed to buy all the available grain in that country.

safeguarded upon the Pacific coast. We harbor no ill will toward our neighbors.

"The oriental people have a most excellent field to exploit and there is no need that they should come to this continent. We should impress upon them politely and in diplomatic language that their field, their zone of influence, is in Asiatic waters, while ours is here on this continent and we wish to be let alone."

TREVINO'S TRAIN REACHES JIMINEZ UNHARMED

Jiminez, Chihuahua, Jan. 21.—The special train carrying General Jacinto Trevino arrived here tonight at 8:30 without incident. They found the Bonilla dam, reported destroyed, undamaged. General Trevino's orders for the concentration of foreigners at garrisoned points have been well carried out. Cargos, Hutchins, Williams, Fields, C. E. Cooley, R. W. Brand, L. B. McHaffrey and H. O. Harris, Americans from Parral, Chihuahua, met the train here and were furnished transportation to Torreon.

Harold Higgins, Rinal and McFarland had already gone south.

The Parral men report that the robbery of the Alvarado Mining company was committed by a small band of riders, who took advantage of the departure of the Americans.

Enrique Clark, of the Corralitos ranch, often reported killed or carried off by the Villistas, is alive and well in Jiminez.

Rosalio Hernandez, the Villa general, reported as joining Arguemedo's forces, has definitely retired to private life. His two daughters met the special train of Trevino and gave the commander assurances to this effect.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF RICH LIVERYMAN

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—George Hopkins and Elmer Akers were arrested here today in connection with the murder of A. T. Hopkins, a wealthy liveryman, who was found with his head crushed here on November 8, last. An axe had been used by the slayers. Tom Colle and James Brook, negroes, also are under arrest at Oklahoma City in connection with the crime.

Hopkins is a son of the liveryman and Akers is a brother-in-law of the younger Hopkins. Under the will of the elder Hopkins, it is said, an estate of $40,000 was left to his son.

MORE NIGHTRIDERS SENTENCED TO PEN

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Three more night riders were sentenced in the circuit court here today. Dick Gamble and John Elder, both having been found guilty and sentenced to two and three years respectively in the penitentiary and John Osborne, who pleaded guilty, to two years. Eighteen night riders have now been sentenced. A jury was out tonight with the case of Dan and George Thills. The cases of forty-seven are yet to be heard.

Oscar Hammerstein Bankrupt.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Oscar Hammerstein, former grand opera impresario, was adjudicated a bankrupt today by an order signed by Federal Judge Mayer. The order, which directed him to appear for examination before a referee, follows his failure to answer an involuntary petition in bankruptcy filed January 4 by creditors.

AMERICAN IS MURDERED NEAR CITY OF JUAREZ

Slayer, Said to Be Escaped
Convict From New Mexico
Penitentiary, Is Promptly
Taken Into Custody.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 21.—An American, name unknown, was shot and killed late today in a battle with two Mexicans at a ranch named San Lorenzo, a short distance east of Juarez, according to an announcement late tonight by General Gabriel Gaviña, commandant at the Mexican town. The Mexicans involved, Fredricko and Bernardo Duran, are in jail. General Gaviña sent a detail of policemen out to bring the body in. There were two Americans involved. They were searching for stolen cattle. The second American was not hurt, according to reports given by General Gaviña. He has not appeared, however, on the American side.

Bernardo Duran, General Gaviña said, was the man who killed the American. He set up the claim of self defense. The fight occurred at the ranch, when the Americans, accompanied by a Mexican secret service officer, sought to question the Durans about the presence of cattle alleged to have been stolen. The Mexicans fired from the roof of their house. The Americans and the Mexican officer returned the fire. The Americans tried to escape on one horse. The Mexican secret service man named Juan Barrios, while fleeing on foot, was overtaken by Fredricko Duran and disarmed, but not molested. The Durans were taken prisoners by a detail of soldiers guarding horses nearby.

J. B. Akers and Douglas Downs, cattlemen of Ysleta, Texas, twelve miles east of here, were said to have gone into Mexico in the direction of Zaragoza in search of stolen cattle. It is believed they were the men in the battle.

Two rangers who reached the city tonight reported that Akers was reported to have been the man killed. The cattle alleged to have been stolen, they said, belonged to a Mrs. Murphy, a widow, living at Ysleta.

One of the rangers reported to the police that Akers was killed and that the surviving man was named Lawrence.

The region around Ysleta has been the scene of much cattle and horse stealing recently, the thieves apparently coming from the vicinity of Zaragoza.

Duran declared he did not know the man he killed was an American until after he fell off his horse.

General Gaviña requested Andrea Garcia, Mexican consul here, to communicate with the penitentiary at Santa Fe and obtain information concerning the record of Bernardo Duran, who is said to have been serving a sentence there for cattle stealing, and alleged to have escaped.

HONG KONG RECRUITS PICTURESQUE GROUP

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

London, Jan. 7.—The British army has just received a small but picturesque addition to its strength in a group of thirty recruits from Hong Kong. Five times since the war began these men had petitioned the governor of Hong Kong to be released from the constabulary service in which they were engaged in order that they might go to England and enlist, but each time their request was refused. Finally, however, they received permission to leave China, and sailed for England.

Their appearance on the streets of London was greeted with the greatest interest and curiosity. Under their khaki overcoats which were thrown wide open, most of the men wore the blue uniforms with white piping of the Hong Kong constabulary. Their helmets were the winter service pattern of thick pith, with a steel spike on top and a steel band running round the side.

Two Dead in Flood.

Sulphur, Okla., Jan. 21.—Two persons are known to be dead and four others are reported drowned as a result of heavy rains which caused Rock creek, a stream flowing through here, to overflow early today. One of the recovered bodies has been identified as James Spinner, a real estate man.

Oldest Veteran Dead.

Edging, Ill., Jan. 21.—Atenozo A. Jones, 95 years old, a veteran of the civil war, said by his friends to have been the oldest member of the Grand Army of the Republic in the country, died at his home here today.

FORMAL DINNER TO DIPLOMATS BY PRESIDENT

Representatives of Entente
Powers and Neutrals Are Present; Second Affair for Teuton Allies Arranged.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Washington, Jan. 21.—Diplomats representing the entente allies and twenty-eight neutral nations gathered at the White House tonight for the first of two formal dinners arranged by the president and Mrs. Wilson in honor of the members of the diplomatic corps. The second dinner to be given next Tuesday night will be attended by the ambassadors of Germany, the charges d'affaires of Austria-Hungary and Turkey, the minister of Bulgaria and the same neutral diplomats present tonight.

With the diplomats in their court uniforms, the state dining room of the White House presented a brilliant scene. In addition to the diplomat and their wives, the guests included the secretary of state and Mrs. Lansing, counselor for the state department, and Mrs. Polk, the assistant secretary of state and Mrs. Osborne, Senators Stone of Missouri and Smith of Utah, and Representatives Flood of Virginia and Cooper of Wisconsin, ranking majority and minority members of the senate and house foreign relations committees with their wives, and several personal friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

J. J. Jusserand, the French ambassador, dean of the Washington diplomatic corps, and Mme. Jusserand, occupied the seats of honor next to the president and Mrs. Wilson. The other guests were arranged around the tables in accordance with their rank. Argentina, Greece and Colombia were represented by charges d'affaires, the heads of the missions being away from the city.

Particular interest attached to the dinner because it was the first affair of its kind given in Washington since the outbreak of the European war.

PROSECUTION IN MOHR MURDER CASE NEAR END

Attorney General Hopes to Be Allowed to Place Two Alleged Accomplices on Stand Against Widow.

(BY MORNING JOURNAL SPECIAL LEASED WIRE)

Providence, R. I., Jan. 21.—Another unsuccessful effort was made by the prosecution today in the trial of Mrs. Elizabeth Mohr and two negroes for the murder of her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr, to have the alleged confessions of the accused negroes admitted as evidence against her.

The court had previously ruled out this evidence as affecting Mrs. Mohr, but Attorney General Rice moved today that in view of testimony of George W. Healis, Dr. Mohr's negro chauffeur, which he said "showed a conspiracy," all evidence which had been admitted only as concerning Cecil Victor Brown and Henry H. Spellman, the negro defendants, be now considered by the jury against the widow as well.

Judge Stearns replied that he was not inclined to change his previous ruling. The attorney general said that he would renew his motion on Monday, when the case is to be resumed and would submit authoritative decisions in support of it. The state expects to rest its case Monday.

At the hour of adjournment Miss Gertrude Stevenson, of Boston, a newspaper writer, was on the stand. She testified that she interviewed the three negroes—Brown, Spellman and Healis—in jail, and that Brown wrote something on a slip of paper which he said "was to be his alibi." Miss Stevenson said he asked her to give the paper to his sister, and also requested the witness to get Mrs. Mohr to send him an attorney.

"Brown told me to tell Mrs. Mohr not to say anything about the motorcycle," the witness said, "adding that he would say his wife saved up money enough to buy it. Healis told me also to tell Mrs. Mohr that 'if she'll stick to us, we'll stick to her.'"
